Sample in-text citations

In-text citation for list where all bullet points come from the same source:

Phases of Pertussis:\(^4\)
  – Catarrhal
  – Paroxysmal
  – Convalescent

In-text citations for a list where each bullet point comes from a different sources:

Diseases and their causal agents:
  – Syphilis is caused by Treponema pallidum\(^6\)
  – Plague is caused by Yersinia pestis\(^5\)

In-text citation in a sentence (superscript number goes after the punctuation):

Staphlococci infect both animals and humans.\(^1\)

If you are citing multiple sources for one item, you can list them in ranges or with commas (keep in numerical order):

\(^1\)\(^-\)\(^3\) or \(^2\),\(^4\),\(^6\)

Also you may cite items mid-sentence:

The Center for Disease Control\(^1\) lists many animals as being affected by plague.
Sample image with citation

Bacillus anthracis

Gram-stain technique photomicrograph of Bacillus anthracis bacteria

Life cycle of Yersinia pestis in nature and possible paths for it to enter the human population.
References